This informant advised [redacted] had an opportunity to visit with Subject and [redacted] whom he knows as [redacted] [redacted] on several occasions [redacted] but at no time has he succeeded in soliciting any information from either the Subject or [redacted] he knows as [redacted] [redacted]

On June 27, 1961 Captain [redacted] Milwaukee Police Department, advised that he had just learned from sources in [redacted] City of Milwaukee, that FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI had been summoned to appear in the Office of the City Attorney on that date in answer to complaints that his entertainers (strippers) at the Downtowner, 340 West Wells Street, had been soliciting drinks at the bar in violation of a city ordinance. As of the time this report is being prepared, Captain [redacted] advised that he had not learned the outcome of Subject's appearance in the City Attorney's Office but that he would be diligent in his efforts to determine the outcome of this meeting on the part of Subject and would immediately thereafter make the results known to the FBI.

On June 12, 1961 Confidential informant MI T-6 advised that Internal Revenue Service was pursuing PETER BALISTRIERI, Subject's brother, in connection with possibility that PETER had been evading either corporate or personal income tax for the past several years. PETER BALISTRIERI is the licensee of Gallagher's, the Milwaukee supper club or steakhouse managed by Subject and was formerly the licensee and manager of the Tower Tavern, Inc., which tavern was closed as of approximately January 1, 1961.

On June 14, 1961 an article appeared in the "Milwaukee Sentinel;" a daily Milwaukee paper, reflecting that PETER BALISTRIERI, a downtown tavern operator, had asked the Federal Court in Milwaukee to restrain Internal Revenue Service and the Justice Department from questioning him about tax liabilities of his tavern operations until they had given him back his books and records. An article appearing in the "Milwaukee Journal",

b7C
b7D

a daily Milwaukee newspaper as of June 17, 1961 reflected that Federal Judge ROBERT E. TEHAN had on Friday, June 16, 1961 denied a motion by PETER BALISTRERI to restrain Internal Revenue Service from questioning him on Monday, June 19, 1961 about taxes which he, PETER BALISTRERI, may have paid the Government.

On June 13, 1961 confidential informant MI T-2 advised SA JAMES E. MC ARDLE that although Subject may be the alleged leader of the gambling element in the Milwaukee area, it was FRANK SANSONE, alias "BIG FOOT" HOGAN who stopped all gambling activities in Milwaukee, including craps and betting of all kinds, when the recent publicity relative to gambling in the Milwaukee-Kenosha, Wisconsin and Waukegan-Antioch, Illinois areas appeared in mid-Western daily newspapers. This publicity appeared after Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY appeared before Congress seeking legislation to curb interstate gambling activities. In addition to the foregoing, this informant advised that although Subject may be getting a cut of all gambling activities in Milwaukee area, it was SANSONE who was primarily responsible for setting the odds, etc. on all bets in the Milwaukee area. Informant advised that although he was not certain as to who SANSONE's superior in gambling activities was, he was certain that it was not FRANK BALISTRERI. This informant recalled having heard SANSONE refer to an individual by the name of [redacted] in either Cleveland or Chicago as being the man through whom he received his information and through whom he laid off his (SANSONE's) bets.

In addition to the foregoing, this informant advised he had heard from [redacted]

[redacted] that Subject was aware of the existence of a summary of information which had been prepared on him, which summary allegedly reflected [redacted]

[redacted] and other information relative to the type of information which had been developed relative to BALISTRERI's activities. Apparently,

b6
b7C
b7D

MI 94-316

according to informant, as a result of receipt of information allegedly contained in the above-mentioned summary, BALISTRERI has become even more worried than he has been in the past relative to his Internal Revenue Service income tax problem. Informant advised that

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] informant added that BALISTRERI has the reputation of being very mean to his wife ANTONINA, nee ALIOTO.

On June 6, 1961, confidential informant MI T-10 advised that the Italian hoodlum element in Milwaukee is in a state of turmoil or instability at the present time because there seem to be various factions looking around for leadership. In this connection, informant pointed out that the so-called cheese faction which is involved in the manufacture and sale of Italian cheese is allegedly controlled by SAM FERRARA but that MIKE ALBANO is or was another part of this faction centering around the pizza operation at 16th and Wells Streets, that FRANK LA GALBO, operator of Chico's Restaurant in Milwaukee is a part of another faction, that AUGIE MANIACI currently in the roofing and siding business may be part of still another faction. According to the informant these individuals may be trying to get new leadership in the Italian-American hoodlum element which has for the past several months allegedly been under the control of FRANK PETER BALISTRERI.

On June 8, 1961 confidential informant MI T-11 [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] never been able to clearly determine who the actual [REDACTED] ever given any insight into the actual operation and management of the business. The information supplied by this informant was substantiated by MI T-12 on June 14, 1961 [redacted] SAS JAMES E. MC ARDLE and CLARK E. LOVRIEN [redacted]

[redacted] actually has no insight into the operation of the business. [redacted]

[redacted] also stated that it is common practice for Subject and his brother PETER to pick up the check of local politicians and law enforcement officers.

On June 14, 1961 confidential informant MI T-13 advised SA JAMES E. MC ARDLE that [redacted]

[redacted] FRANK PETER BALISTRERI and to CARL DENTICE who operates the DENTICE Amusement Company at 8210 West New Jersey Avenue, Milwaukee, but that regardless [redacted]

[redacted] According to informant, [redacted]

On June 15, 1961, [redacted] Central Office, Milwaukee Police Department advised that CARL J. DENTICE acting for the Dentice Amusement Company, 8210 West New Jersey Avenue in 1960 held an amusement devices license and a phonograph and recording license permitting him to operate 39 record machines and ten amusement devices in the city of Milwaukee. [redacted] advised that according to city of Milwaukee regulations, the City Clerk's Office had to have a copy of the agreement between the business owner and the operator of the amusement devices as well as an identification tag number for the device to be installed in a place of business prior to its being installed thereon. Captain [redacted] Milwaukee P.D., today advised he learned from [redacted] that Subject had been called before the City Attorney's Office because two strip teasers and a waitress, employed at the Downtowner, 340 West Wells, had been accused of soliciting drinks. According to [redacted] advised that acting detectives of the Milwaukee P.D. entered the Downtowner Friday evening in plain clothes and were invited to sit in a booth next to one occupied by two strippers. Waitress in question asked strippers if they wanted a drink and strippers turned to detectives and asked if it was all right for them to order. The officers agreed, paid for the drinks and thereafter arrested the women. After arrest conflict over what actually happened developed and City Attorney's Office has agreed that the strippers and the waitress would be charged unless they agreed to lie detector tests, after which a determination as to prosecution will be made. No indication Subject will be prosecuted.

Family Background

The library of the "Milwaukee Journal," a daily metropolitan Milwaukee newspaper on May 18, 1957 carried an article over the byline of LARRY LAWRENCE in the "Green Sheet" of that paper reflecting that as of that time there were seven FRANK BALISTRIERIS in Milwaukee, all cousins and grandsons of FRANK BALISTRIERI who came to Milwaukee from Palermo, Italy in 1906. This article reflects that eventually the elder FRANK BALISTRIERI got into the hauling business in Milwaukee and had contract for garbage hauling in the City of Milwaukee, that as each of his seven sons matured, he took them into business with him and that each of these sons named their first born son FRANK in honor of their father.

This article reportedly based on an interview by the writer LARRY LAWRENCE and FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI reflects that three of the elder FRANK BALISTRIERI's sons namely FRANK, JR., THOMAS and PETER migrated to San Diego, California, where they engaged in the cafe and trucking business. The other sons JOSEPH, Subject's father, CARLO, SALVATORE and DOMINIC remained in Milwaukee where they and the three brothers then in California continued to operate businesses known as "Balistreri Brothers" and "Milwaukee Cinder Company."

By way of Subject's early start in the tavern and coin operated machine business, LAWRENCE's article reflects that FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI after having been married in 1940 (it should be noted he was actually married on November 18, 1939) went to his grandfather FRANK BALISTRIERI and informed him that he wanted a tavern owned by his grandfather located at 801 West Clybourn Street,

Milwaukee. The story goes on to state that the juke box installed in the tavern made more money for FRANK BALISTRIERI that did beer and whisky sold over the bar. According to the article, this tavern known as the Hillside Club was reportedly given to FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI by his grandfather and that thereafter the Subject of this investigation borrowed money to buy a flashy juke box, too flashy for his own Hillside Club, and therefore he rented it to another tavern keeper for fifty per cent of the take, with the net result FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI finally multiplied this original investment into approximately two hundred juke boxes.

According to the article BALISTRIERI gave up the tavern and juke box business in 1943 and went into the family hauling business. However, in 1946 he was given an opportunity to lease what was then the Hotel Roosevelt, at 412 West Wells Street and thus he entered into the tavern and restaurant business.

The LAWRENCE article also reflects that in 1947 BALISTRIERI put on a boxing match under the sponsorship of the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund to make money for that fund, that in reality he guaranteed $7,100 and lost $6,000 on the venture but that he continued in the boxing business and eventually lost $30,000 in boxing enterprises before he made a "haul" when he cleaned up on the Rocky Graziano--Vince Cedone fight on May 9, 1950.

On January 15, 1958 confidential informant MI T-2 advised SA JOHN H. GASSAWAY and SA [redacted] that FRANK BALISTRIERI, the son-in-law of JOHN ALIOTO, a tavern and store operator on Michigan and Van Buren Streets in Milwaukee and City of Milwaukee employee, head of the Milwaukee Italian-American hoodlum organization, was ALIOTO's lieutenant and responsible for handling a great many "fixes" with the Milwaukee Police Department and the local District Attorney's office, and that it was through ALIOTO and other relatives connected with the hoodlum element in Kansas City, Missouri that BALISTRIERI gained his power and position in the Italian-American hoodlum element of Milwaukee.

Also in the Register of Deeds Office on Page 265 of Volume 4238 of Mortgages, there is recorded a purchase money mortgage in the amount of $20,000 in favor of the Catholic Knights Insurance Society of Wisconsin reflecting that FRANK P. BALISTRERI and his wife ANTONINA are the mortgagors of the property located at 3043 North Shepard Avenue.

It has been observed that this property is a substantial brick home in the north-east section of Milwaukee approximately twenty to thirty years of age. It is located in an area of substantial homes. At various times, late October, 1960 through early January, 1961 SA JAMES E. MC ARDLE noted that there appeared to be a considerable amount of remodeling being done at 3043 North Shepard Avenue since there were various construction, electrical and plumbing contractors' trucks and employees observed going in and out of the building.

On March 1, 1961 [redacted] Mortgage Department, Catholic Knights of Wisconsin, advised SA MC ARDLE that the Catholic Knights held a $20,000 purchase money mortgage on Subject's home at 3043 North

Shepard Avenue, that Subject had used, as best he could recall, a cashier's check for the balance of the cost of the real estate transaction which, as [redacted] recalled, Subject purchased for something in excess of $32,000 total purchase price for the house. [redacted] further advised that Subject's application for the mortgage loan was very meager and contained no banking references. He added that he and other officers of the Catholic Knights did not think this unusual because they had known BALISTRIERI through his operation of the Tower Bar in the Tower Hotel which is owned and operated by and used as headquarters for the Catholic Knights of Wisconsin.

With reference to the home at 1417 North Humboldt Avenue, occupied by Subject and his family prior to November or early December, 1960, on July 13, 1961 [REDACTED] Clerk, Office of County Treasurer, Milwaukee, advised that this property was purchased by FRANK BALISTRERI from [REDACTED] on January 16, 1946 by warranty deed recorded at Page 354, Volume 2192 of Deeds in the Register of Deeds Office, Milwaukee County and is described as follows:

Partition east half of southwest quarter, south 21 (quarter blocks), south 26 feet of north 80 feet of west 90 feet of east 130 feet of block 16.

[redacted] advised that the County taxes on this property have not been paid since 1952 and that as of this time the County has a lien against the property of $468.28 plus penalties and that the County Treasurer's Office has turned the matter over to the office of the Corporation Counsel looking forward to the County foreclosing on the property on the basis of the tax delinquency.

BUSTIANO VETO BALESTRERE, aka Bustiano Veto Balistreri, Buster Vito Balestreri, Buster Balistreri, Buster Balestrere, Buster Vedo Balestrere

BUSTIANO VETO BALESTRERE, commonly called Buster Balestrere, resides at 1634 North Jackson Street, Milwaukee. He was born Kansas City, Missouri, November 16 or 18, 1918, the son of FRANK BALESTRERE. The family formerly resided at 508 Harrison Street, Kansas City, Missouri. His brothers are VITO BALESTRERE of Milwaukee and JAMES BALESTRERE currently of Milwaukee and formerly employed as a dealer at the Flamingo Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada. BUSTER BALESTRERE is also the brother-in-law of JOSEPH FRANK GUERARA of Kansas City, Missouri and has for several years reportedly been associated with the top hoodlum element in that community. BUSTER BALESTRERE has been described by Sergeant [redacted] Milwaukee Police Department as being the "muscle" and personal bodyguard of FRANK PETER BALISTRERI and to handle much of BALISTRERI's so called contact work. In this connection confidential informant MI T-3 has advised that BUSTER BALESTRERE actually supervises the gambling venture operated in Kenosha by JOHN CHARLES RIZZO for FRANK PETER BALISTRERI. Further, confidential informant MI T-4 advised that there is some indication that BUSTER BALESTRERE is gaining a great deal of power in the local Italian-American hoodlum element in Milwaukee and would very probably take the place of his cousin FRANK PETER BALISTRERI if something happened to the latter.

FELIX VALLEY, aka Phil Valley

PHIL VALLEY resides Route 4, Box 302, Mequon, Wisconsin, a Milwaukee suburb. He is the business agent for the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union, Local 122, with offices at 322 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee. Information has been obtained that Local 122 of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union has never had an accounting of finances to the membership of the local during the past ten years. The union allegedly collects from organized hotel and restaurants seven dollars per member per month for permanent employees, such payment being used to pay the premium for insurance issued by the Union Labor Life Insurance Company, 6333 West Bluemound Road, Milwaukee. There is some indication according to confidential informant MI T-5 that VALLEY allegedly OK's FRANK PETER BALISTRERI financially. In this connection, informant advised that the Modern Construction Company run by OSCAR PLOTKIN in Milwaukee was doing some remodeling work for FRANK BALISTRERI at 829 North Third Street at the time that that it was being remodeled to what is now known as Gallagher's Restaurant. PLOTKIN apparently exhibited a note signed by BALISTRERI for the purpose of having it discounted by [redacted]. However, [redacted] refused to accept BALISTRERI's paper. Thereafter PLOTKIN, prior to proceeding with the work discussed the matter with PHIL VALLEY who allegedly told PLOTKIN to go ahead with the work and he would "get paid for it." In addition to the foregoing, VALLEY runs the Wisconsin Boxing Club and it has been alleged that he is a member of the Chicago hoodlum organization and furnishes the Milwaukee leader of the Milwaukee Italian-American hoodlum element with orders from the Chicago organization from time to time.

MANIACI was born Milwaukee, Wisconsin June 16, 1909, one of ten sons of NUNCIO and ROSE MANIACI. He attended Milwaukee schools from September, 1913 to September, 1924 when he finished the eighth grade. He married MARY GUTILLA at Rockford, Illinois September 2, 1934 [redacted]

MANIACI under his wife's name operated the Club Midnight, 1902 East North Avenue from 1940 to May of 1958 when the business closed and voluntary bankruptcy petition filed. MANIACI has been described by the Milwaukee Police Department as a member of the Milwaukee Italian criminal element and his activities have been linked with horse booking, hijacking, local crimes and a gangland-type slaying in the Milwaukee area.

According to Sergeant [redacted] Milwaukee Police Department, MANIACI was definitely involved in the slaying of JACK ENEA, November 29, 1955. According to [redacted] it has been determined that the 1951 black Cadillac believed used in the ENEA murder was found cut up in the vicinity of Rockford, Illinois and determined to have been the property of JOHN AIELLO, a Milwaukee ex-convict and an associate of MANIACI. There is some indication, according to [redacted] that MANIACI as a member of the Italian hoodlum element in Milwaukee is believed to be the individual responsible for receiving the orders of the higherups in the element.

On March 9, 1951 MANIACI was interviewed by former SA ROBERT M. FAUNTILERoy at the Cricket Club, 224 West Michigan Avenue, Milwaukee, which he at the time was operating. During the course of this interview MANIACI was asked if the Italian hoodlum element was headed by JOHN ALIOTO whose lieutenant was FRANK BALISTRERI and under whom was MANIACI himself. In response, MANIACI smiled, nodded his head in agreement and then stated "Remember, you said that," thus leaving the interviewing Agent with the impression at least that the statement was correct. Concerning conditions in Milwaukee in March of 1951, MANIACI made the statement "You fellows can forget all about Wisconsin and Milwaukee. We don't like outside operators here and nothing is going on in town of any consequence." He stated that only small bookmaking operations were in existence and there were no open gambling houses or policy wheels and the Italian element as far as he knew was not concerned with narcotics or prostitution activities. MANIACI claimed there was no known racketeering in Milwaukee. He mentioned specifically "PHIL VALLEY's union," the Hotel and Restaurant Workers, claiming that these union activities were legitimate and no force or pressure was used in connection with the activities in any manner. MANIACI terminated the interview by saying he was not interested and/or involved in criminal activities nor publicity in connection therewith. He claimed he was getting along in years, [redacted]

[redacted] and his wife complained bitterly to him whenever she suspected he might be becoming involved in anything approaching a questionable activity. Confidential informant MI T44 advised that in his opinion the current controlling group of the Italian-American hoodlum element in Milwaukee consists of FRANK BALISTRERI as leader and that assisting him in this capacity are BUSTER BALESTRERE, STEVE DI SALVO and AUGGIE MANIACI. This informant has indicated that JOHN AIELLO may be also associated with this group. It is added further that AIELLO and MANIACI are currently interested in a roofing and siding business being carried on under the name of Wisconsin Suppliers and Builders Company, 1440 West Vliet Street.

It will be noted from the following identification record under FBI No. 1 744 526 as of May 23, 1958 that although MANIACI's name has been linked to various crimes in the past, he has not been convicted for a crime in the Milwaukee area.

JOHN ALIOTO

JOHN ALIOTO was born Porticello, Sicily, August 25, 1888. He arrived in the United States at the port of New York March 20, 1904 and was naturalized in Milwaukee, Wisconsin September 13, 1926. He is married to CATHERINE ALIOTO and currently resides at 2500 North Booth Street where he operates Alioto's Food Store.

JOHN ALIOTO retired as labor foreman with the Bureau of Street Sanitation, City of Milwaukee April 6, 1958. He formerly owned property at 514 and 522 North Van Buren Street, Milwaukee as well as a tavern at 701 East Michigan Street, Milwaukee, which was operated by his sons JOSEPH and ANGELO. With the redevelopment program in Milwaukee, the above mentioned property was purchased by the city. Thereafter JOHN ALIOTO, together with his sons JOSEPH and ANGELO, has constructed a new night club type restaurant on the corner of Highway 100 and West Burleigh Road.

JOHN ALIOTO is the father-in-law of FRANK PETER BALISTRERI and according to confidential informants MI T-2, T-4 and T-6 was for a number of years the leader of the Italian-American hoodlum element in Milwaukee. In addition to the foregoing, confidential informant MI T-4 has advised that ALIOTO makes yearly trips to the West Coast to visit relatives and contacts people in Kansas City, Missouri and Reno, Nevada, apparently in connection with underworld activities. This informant advised that ALIOTO's lieutenant in January 1958 was FRANK BALISTRIERI and that he, BALISTRIERI, would eventually succeed ALIOTO. MI T-2 in January 1958 advised that JOHN ALIOTO, the head of the hoodlum element in Milwaukee, took his orders from TONY ACCARDO and that he had as his lieutenants FRANK BALISTRIERI and AUGUST JOSEPH MANIACI. Although Subject and his father-in-law JOHN ALIOTO are associates in the Italian-American hoodlum element in Milwaukee, confidential informant MI T-5 has advised that ALIOTO does not like FRANK BALISTRIERI, does not trust him and is of the opinion that his, BALISTRIERI's, judgement is not always of the best. According to the informant, some of ALIOTO's dislike for his son-in-law may be based on the fact that BALISTRIERI is reportedly mean to his wife ANTONINA, JOHN ALIOTO's daughter.

In March of 1957 Captain [redacted] Milwaukee Police Department, while trying to locate SAM DI MAGGIO, learned DI MAGGIO might be at 1240 North Astor Street. On arrival at that address, Captain [redacted] found a plush gambling installation. Later [redacted] learned that JOHN RIZZO, 924 Park Avenue, Racine, had an interest in this place, and that RIZZO was then using the alias of JOHN MARINO.

JOHN CHARLES RIZZO was born November 16, 1910 at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and presently resides at 1906 Emmertson Road, Racine, Wisconsin. RIZZO is married to the former JOSEPHINE ZAMBITI, the marriage having taken place at Waukegan, Illinois in 1929.

[redacted] Credit Bureau of Racine, on February 10, 1961 advised SA WILLIAM J. HIGGINS, Jr. that among JOHN CHARLES RIZZO'S relatives is a brother, SAM RIZZO, of 2818 Winthrop Avenue, Racine, Wisconsin, employed as secretary for the Union Labor Publishing Company, Inc., publishers of "The Racine Labor," a weekly paper, and that SAM RIZZO was very active in the past two campaigns for GERALD T. FLYNN, of Racine, who two years ago won the first district congressional office on the Democratic ticket but lost out in the November, 1960 campaign when up for re-election.

April 26, 1946, arrested in gambling raid, 618 East Clybourn, charge inmate gambling house, $25 and costs on June 14, 1946.

On January 27, 1961 MI T-3 advised SA WILLIAM J. HIGGINS, Jr. that the "56th Street Cigar Store," 2207 56th Street, Kenosha, is nothing more than a room rented [redacted] the building at that location, by a WILLIAM COVELLI, also known as "WEISER," for the operation of a gambling establishment. Informant stated that RIZZO acts as the "banker" for a craps gambling game held at this location on week-ends, which attracts a number of businessmen from the Kenosha, Wisconsin area, with a $500 pot limit. Informant went on to add that RIZZO is a "money" man or "banker" primarily and currently is the only contact in Kenosha who will handle any sizeable horse race bet with the "lay offs" being made in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, possibly with the BALISTRIERIS.

On January 26, 1960 MI T-3 advised SA HIGGINS that the BALISTRIERI gang from Milwaukee, Wisconsin had taken over Kenosha, Wisconsin in so far as "craps" games are concerned and has squeezed out most of the former local dice operators entirely. Informant added that as of that date RIZZO was running strictly a craps game with a $500 limit, and he also took a few horse race bets.

On April 18, 1961 [redacted] Sheriff's Office, Racine, Wisconsin, advised SA HIGGINS that JOHN RIZZO'S home at 1906 Emmertson Road, Racine, had been forced into by an unknown male wearing a stocking over his head as a disguise at 3:30 AM, April 15, 1961. According to the Racine County Sheriff's Office files, the unknown subject stayed with [redacted] until the arrival of JOHN RIZZO at about 4:30 AM. At this time, the unknown man held Mr. RIZZO at gun point and, not finding any "craps" money, took RIZZO'S car, which was later recovered by RIZZO abandoned in the city of Oak Creek, Wisconsin, near Milwaukee.

With additional reference to the association between RIZZO and FRANK BALISTRIERI, it is to be noted that on February 21, 1958 MI T-7 advised SA JAMES E. MC ARDLE that JOHN RIZZO was among the associates of FRANK BALISTRIERI of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The informant further advised that RIZZO formerly operated a gambling joint on the east side in Milwaukee, and that FRANK BALISTRIERI used to send his girls over there for $10 per night. [REDACTED] According to this informant, DE SALVO is in substance the lieutenant or strong arm man for BALISTRIERI.

STEVE JOHN DE SALVO was arrested by the Milwaukee Police Department for safekeeping on May 5, 1947 for the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This arrest took place at the Belmont Hotel when DE SALVO tried to sell 2,000 forged sugar rationing stamps for $500. On August 18, 1947, DE SALVO was sentenced to serve 30 days at the Milwaukee County House of Correction and fined $100 after pleading guilty in Federal Court to a charge of illegal possession and transfer of counterfeit sugar stamps. In addition to the $100 fine and 30 day sentence, DE SALVO was placed on Federal probation for an 18 month period following the completion of the 30 day sentence.

Sergeant [REDACTED] on April 13, 1961 advised SA LAURENCE J. GIUNTOLI that FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI went to the office of Chief of Police HOWARD O. JOHNSON, of the Milwaukee Police Department, to register a complaint. During the course of the complaint, Chief JOHNSON asked FRANK BALISTRIERI about STEVE DE SALVO. BALISTRIERI told Chief JOHNSON that DE SALVO was an employee of his at Gallagher's Restaurant, 829 North 3rd Street, and is regarded as the official buyer of produce and meats for the restaurant. According to Sergeant [REDACTED] this explanation by BALISTRIERI was strictly phony in that [REDACTED] is of the opinion that DE SALVO is a front man and muscle man for BALISTRIERI, and his position as official buyer is merely an excuse. Concerning the portion of information as to date of incorporation, etc. only, this information being obtained from the Secretary of State's Office, Madison, Wisconsin, which is set forth for each of the following corporations [redacted] Secretary of State's Office, State Capitol, advised on July, 17 and 18, 1961 as follows.

[redacted] advised that the phrase "in bad standing" means that the corporation so designated has failed to file its annual report for one or more years and has been classified as "in bad standing" because of this failure. He said that the Secretary of State's Office does not follow up on these cases and, therefore, has no way of knowing whether or not these corporations are continuing in existence, unless a corporation specifically writes to the Secretary of State to advise that it is being discontinued.

[redacted] further advised that he believes some question arises concerning the legal status of a corporation "in bad standing," but he did not know the specific law on the matter. He said that a corporation in bad standing can regain its former status by paying $10 for each year during which it failed to file an annual report.

The date of the last annual report received is listed under each of the corporations set out below. [redacted] also advised that his office is very much behind in its filing, and there is a possibility that some of the reports due in 1961 have not yet been filed in the corporation folders. This possibility is believed to be slight, however, since groups of reports not yet filed in corporation folders were also checked on the corporations which lack reports due in 1961.

Investigation has established that FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI either completely owns, is listed on public records as an officer or director, or has an interest in the corporations set forth below. For the most part, information set out here has been obtained from public records and banking institutions.

ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES

On May 16, 1958 confidential informant MI T-8 advised SA JOHN H. GASSAWAY that he has learned that FRANK BALISTRERI is definitely the top man in Milwaukee insofar as the Italian "organization" is concerned. The informant added that JOHN ALIOTO is not too active at the present time and that BALISTRERI is the one who handles everything.

On June 15, 1959 confidential informant MI T-4 advised SAs JOHN H. GASSAWAY and JAMES E. MC ARDLE that it was difficult to determine who was the actual leader of the Milwaukee Italian-American hoodlum element but as of that time, it appeared to be JOHN ALIOTO or FRANK BALISTRERI and/or FRANK LEGALBO. Informant added that ALIOTO for a number of years was recognized by the local hoodlum element as being the leader and has always been shown the respect due the leader. However,

On July 13, 1961 confidential informant MI T-5 advised SA MC ARDLE that information has come to him, indicating that within the next four to six weeks FRANK BALISTRERI, generally regarded as the nominal head of the Italian-American hoodlum element in Milwaukee will probably be replaced. Informant advised he had no indication as to who BALISTRERI's successor might be, when such would take place or how such action would be brought about.

Labor Activity

He added in this instance the person who ran the game had very little money invested in it, whereas BALISTRERI and two or three other individuals in town had financed it and the profits of the game were in turn split among these individuals who had financed it. According to informant, this is a very common practice in Milwaukee.

On March 5, 1959 confidential informant MI T-9 advised SA FAUNTLEROY that as proof of the fact that BALISTRERI and his associates had something going for them in the gambling racket [REDACTED]

This informant went on to say that most gambling in Milwaukee consisted of "walking books" and occasional crap games. Insofar as he knows, there is no policy wheel and no gambling houses in operation in Milwaukee.

According to this informant, this temporary situation did not mean that Kenosha interests were being "cut in" on a permanent basis but was a co-operative arrangement of mutual aid such as can be found throughout the gambling fraternity. Informant added it is likely that one of the above named individuals would be in Kenosha and feed back results to a clandestine Lake County betting center.

On March 6, 1961 confidential informant MI T-4 advised SA JOHN H. GASSAWAY that FRANK BALISTRERI runs one of the biggest horse books in town and that STEVE DI SALVO really handles the book along with BUSTER BALESTRERE, that the three of these individuals get a cut of the profits, that the book is carried on in a house which they have rented on North Van Buren Street located across the street from Costantino's Bar at 1613 North Van Buren Street. He added that if they receive any large bets which they do not want to handle, they lay them off with Chicago gamblers.

Miscellaneous

On January 15, 1958 confidential informant MI T-6 in describing FRANK BALISTRERI, stated he was a lieutenant in the Italian-American hoodlum element in Milwaukee under JOHN ALIOTO and added that BALISTRERI operates boxing matches at the local arena. [redacted]

POLICE PROTECTION AND POLITICAL TIES

On November 12, 1958 confidential informant MI T-5 advised SA MC ARDLE that insofar as he was concerned FRANK BALISTRERI's best political connection in the city of Milwaukee is STANLEY J. WITKOWSKI, the City Clerk, that it is through this individual that BALISTRERI gets advance information on what is to be taken up at City Council meetings, that it is WITKOWSKI who brings his influence to bear on the City Licensing Committee and other city administrative groups through which BALISTRERI must operate. Informant added that it is not at all unusual for WITKOWSKI to become intoxicated at one of BALISTRERI's taverns or night clubs and that under these circumstances BALISTRERI usually designates one of his female employees to make certain WITKOWSKI reaches his home safely.

On February 26, 1958 confidential informant MI T-7 advised [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] WITKOWSKI in his capacity as City Clerk has done favors for BALISTRERI. This, according to the informant, was exemplified by the testimony of Captain GEORGE SPRAGUE of the Milwaukee Police Department who on October 12, 1957 testified that WITKOWSKI, Milwaukee City Clerk, had granted BALISTRERI temporary amusement license at no expense to him at a time when BALISTRERI operated the Villa Venice at 2603 West North Avenue. This testimony came forth at a time when the Milwaukee Police Department had recommended to the Licensing Committee of the Milwaukee City Council that BALISTRERI be refused a license for the operation of his various enterprises in the city of Milwaukee. On April 24, 1961 confidential informant MI T-4 advised SA GASSAWAY that FRANK BALISTRIERI is trying to take complete control of Milwaukee, and in so doing will try to get control of the police officials, aldermen, District Attorneys, and other city officials in Milwaukee and added that members of the local Italian-American hoodlum element are to take these officials out for entertainment, get them drunk and then take compromising photographs and make tape recordings. In this connection BALISTRIERI instructed that an individual should buy a small camera and a tape recorder and use them when dealing with the District Attorney and any of his assistants, the Milwaukee Police Department Vice Squad or any other public officials so that if they were picked up for some crime at a later date, the individual could use the picture and tape recording to put the particular official on the spot.

Furthermore, [redacted] who assisted WITKOWSKI in his election campaign will probably be officially connected or otherwise directly associated with the Sheriff's Department, and therefore may have influence over WITKOWSKI. In addition thereto, informant advised that WITKOWSKI likes to be entertained and could very easily get into some situation whereby he would be compromised by BALISTRERI and/or his compatriots. On November 22, 1960 this informant advised that WITKOWSKI had become obligated to the hoodlum element in Milwaukee through Attorney DOMINIC FRINZI. PENDING PROSECUTIVE ACTION

On July 21, 1961 it was determined that there was no local, state or federal process currently outstanding for subject. On this same date [redacted] Internal Revenue Service, advised that on March 7, 1961 Internal Revenue Service had served a summons on Subject as president of Ben-Kay, Inc., and Hotel Roosevelt, Inc. to produce his books and records and be prepared to give testimony on March 17, 1961. On March 17, 1961 according to [redacted] Subject appeared with counsel but without books and records and refused to give testimony. This information according to [redacted] was reported to the Regional Counsel of Internal Revenue Service, and according to [redacted] the Regional Counsel subsequently replied that because of circumstances, the summons in question would not be enforced, it appearing that a cabaret tax investigation had been made for the above corporations for the period January 1, 1957 to September of 1959 and enforcing the above summons at this time could conceivably jeopardize the cabaret tax cases. However, notice of a second inspection of the books and records were issued to BALISTRIERI for the above corporations, and thereafter, i.e. on May 9, 1961, BALISTRIERI and his attorneys did come in. During the course of this appearance before agents of the Internal Revenue Service, BALISTRIERI did give testimony and surrender books and records for both corporations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1959 and said all other records had been destroyed by a fire in a garage at the rear of 1634 North Jackson Street where they had been stored. No further legal action has been taken to date.

On May 15, 1961 [redacted] advised that preliminary investigation relative to the fire above mentioned has disclosed that there were no records in the fire and that it appeared that Internal Revenue Service may have a perjury case against Subject.

[redacted] on July 21, 1961 advised that on December 20, 1960 [redacted] Investigators of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division had, at the request of Internal Revenue Service, inspected the premises of the Downtowner, 340 West Wells Street, operated by Ben-Kay, Inc. of which Subject is president and Gallagher's Steakhouse, operated by Milwaukee Tradewinds, Inc., of which Subject's brother is president and for which enterprises Subject holds himself out as manager, and the investigators were unable to find the books and records as required by Section 5124 of the Internal Revenue Code, which requires a dealer to keep in his place of business a complete record of distilled spirits, wines and beer received, showing:

b7c

1. quantities thereof;
2. from whom received;
3. the receiving dates.

According to [redacted] Section 7203 of the Internal Revenue Code makes it a misdemeanor not to have such records on the premises, which misdemeanor calls for a penalty of $10,000 fine or one year in jail or both, plus costs of any legal action necessary. A notice of the deficiency and demanding compliance as set forth above was dispatched by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division to the above business concerns on December 23, 1960.

On July 21, 1961 the United States tax liens filed in the Register of Deeds Office, Milwaukee County as they relate to enterprises with which Subject is connected were examined and the following noted:

Synopsis:

DISSEMINATION RESTRICTED TO JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

The Attorney General

August 11

Director, FBI

FRANK PETER DALISTRIERI

I am forwarding to Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller, Jr., a comprehensive summary concerning the background and current activities of Dalistrieri, a lifelong resident of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Dalistrieri, even though he does not have a criminal record, has for years been involved in underworld activities in the Milwaukee area. Gambling operations in Milwaukee and Kenosha, Wisconsin, and in Antioch, Illinois, are alleged to be under his supervision and control.

Dalistrieri has in the past either owned or had interest in taverns, night clubs and restaurants in the Milwaukee area. He presently owns one strip-tease-type night club and although not on record as an owner, is active in the management of another similar club as well as a steak house, all in Milwaukee. Dalistrieri is also listed as secretary-treasurer of Para Corporation, a packaging firm, and even though he reportedly has very little business ability, he has recently been taking an active interest in this corporation. Recent information developed indicates a possible hidden interest of Dalistrieri in the Dentice Amusement Company which operates a number of record machines and amusement devices in the city of Milwaukee.

United States tax liens amounting to over $35,000 are currently filed against business operations in which Dalistrieri is or has been financially interested. In recent testimony before Internal Revenue Service officials he alleged that certain of his records had been destroyed in a garage fire. This raises the possibility of a perjury violation since preliminary investigation of the fire has disclosed no information concerning the records being destroyed in that fire.

Dalistrieri's brother Peter Dalistrieri is also under investigation for possible income tax evasion. A cousin, Dalistrieri, is a collection officer for the Internal Revenue Service.

A comprehensive summary report has been prepared concerning Balistrieri who is among the third group of hoodlum targets selected for intensified investigation looking toward possible prosecution.

FRANK Balistrieri, even though he does not have a criminal record, has for years been involved in underworld activity in the Milwaukee area. Along with his father-in-law John Alioto he has held a position of leadership in the Milwaukee Italian-American hoodlum element. He is also reported to have close ties with the underworld in Chicago and Kansas City. He allegedly controls and supervises gambling in Milwaukee and Kenosha, Wisconsin, and Antioch, Illinois. Leg work and muscle in supervising these gambling operations are provided by Milwaukee hoodlums Steve DeSalvo and Buster Balestrere.

One source has reported that many burglaries and robberies are "cleared" with Balistrieri before they are perpetrated. Another source reports that Balistrieri fences stolen goods through contacts in Chicago.

Balistrieri in his efforts to obtain control in the Milwaukee area will allegedly attempt to compromise local officials and he has reportedly told members of the hoodlum element to take these local officials out, entertain them, get them intoxicated and then take compromising photographs and make tape recordings which can later be used to put these officials "on the spot."

Balistrieri is an associate of Phil Valley, International Vice-President of the Hotel and Restaurant Employee's Union in Milwaukee, and Frank Ranney, business agent of Local 200 of the Teamster's Union.

Balistrieri has in the past either owned or had a financial interest in taverns, night clubs and restaurants in the Milwaukee area. He currently operates the Downtowner, a strip-tease type night club. Although he is not listed as an owner, he is active in the management of Gallagher's Steak House, and Henri's Show Lounge which is also a strip tease club similar to the Downtowner. Balistrieri is listed as secretary-treasurer of Para Corporation, a packaging firm, and even though he reportedly has very little business ability, he has recently been taking an active interest in this corporation. Recent information developed indicates a possible hidden interest of Balistrieri in the Dentice Amusement Company which operates a number of record machines and amusement devices in the City of Milwaukee.

A total in excess of $35,000 in U. S. tax liens are currently filed against business operations in which Balistrieri is or has been financially interested. In testimony before the Internal Revenue Service Balistrieri stated certain records had been destroyed by fire in a garage where they were stored. Indications are there were no records in this location, giving rise to the possibility of a perjury case against Balistrieri.

Peter Balistrieri, brother of subject, is also under investigation by the Internal Revenue Service for violation of income tax laws. Information was received from one of our informants that Peter Balistrieri was [REDACTED] [REDACTED] he and Frank Balistrieri. This information was immediately furnished to the IRS Director at Milwaukee inasmuch as [REDACTED] Frank and Peter Balistrieri [REDACTED] Milwaukee. He has been the subject of [REDACTED] as have several other [REDACTED] who have exhibited unwarranted interests in the tax case of Frank Balistrieri.

From other investigation [REDACTED] is known to this office as [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] and PHIL VALLEY is known as business agent of Local 122, Hotel and Restaurant Employees Union, and also as Vice-President of this district of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees and Bartenders International Union.

The Minneapolis Office advised on September 6, 1961, that on August 28, 1961, BUSTIANO (BUSTER) BALESTRERE appeared at Internal Revenue Service offices in Minneapolis and was questioned concerning gambling activities, but in each instance refused to answer on the basis of the Fifth Amendment. On September 12, 1961, the following information was obtained from [REDACTED] who said that the information was a summary of financial information obtained during the course of Internal Revenue Service investigation of the Subject and his various business endeavors. The information, according to [REDACTED] came from Subject's accountant's work papers, which had been made available to Internal Revenue Service.

The Club 26, which was incorporated in 1953 by RUDOLF PORCHETTA (currently a bartender for the Subject at the Downtowner), JOSEPH MANIACI and [REDACTED] showed an annual cash deficit which by 1957, when the corporation folded, amounted to $57,472.73. According to the accountant's work papers, the annual cash deficit was made up by FRANK BALISTRERI, although he never claimed these losses in any personal or business tax returns that he filed.

b7C

MI 94-316

A similar situation exists as to the Ben Kay Corporation during the period 1953 through 1960 in the amount of $22,831.32. This corporation is still in existence and operates the Downtowner Night Club.

An identical situation existed as to the Roosevelt Hotel as of June 30, 1960, when the books were closed out after the hotel was razed, and in this case the amount of the deficit was $27,959.41.

Another corporation which the Subject showed as of December 3, 1960, is the Para Corporation, and books of this corporation allegedly show a loan from BALISTRERI in the amount of $23,337.10.

The books of the Bon Fire Corporation as of October 31, 1959, show a note payable to FRANK BALISTRERI in the amount of $3,450.

The records of the Pub, Incorporated, as of June 30, 1960, show a figure of $10,168.01 due to JOSEPH DENTICE. [redacted] said that he believes this amount is actually due to BALISTRERI inasmuch as the latter had shown it as a receivable amount on his net worth statement filed with Internal Revenue Service as of 1956.

The records put together for Internal Revenue Service for the Pub, Incorporated, as of June 30, 1960, also show the amount of $66,086.52 as due to PETER BALISTRERI, Subject's brother, who is the current licensee of Gallagher's.

The records as to the Tower Tavern showed a $10,000 item on the books as an amount payable resulting from cash deficit, and [redacted] said that while he is not certain he feels that this amount is probably owed to the Subject.

As of December 30, 1960, a similar situation existed as to the Badger State Boxing Club of which Subject is President, and the books of this club show a net deficit of $21,563.67.

[redacted] said that the books and records of these various corporations were in such condition that the investigation of them is exceedingly difficult, but it appears to him that all of the various corporations with which the Subject has been connected as shown previously operate at a loss, and apparently the Subject makes up the cash differences between reported income and reported outgo.

On August 23, 1961, MI T-2 advised that [redacted] who is residing at [redacted]

[redacted] has all of the Subject's books and records [redacted] and that [redacted]

[redacted] This informant said that the bulk of Subject's activities and his main concern at the present time have to do with his tax difficulties and that he is in constant touch with his attorney, [redacted] and [redacted]

Informant also advised that Subject had fired [redacted]

[redacted] This informant has also received information that Subject has been given notice by the city of Milwaukee to vacate Gallagher's and the Downtowner inasmuch as the block in which these buildings are located is to be cleared off in connection with a civic improvement project.

On September 17, 1961, this informant also reported that Subject [redacted] during the early morning hours of that date, and it appeared to the informant [redacted]

ANTI-RACKETEERING

During the course of investigating the captioned person, who has been designated by the Department of Justice as one of the top hoodlum figures in the country, the following information has been received, indicating that he could be, directly or indirectly, receiving information from personal sources employed by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS):

1. Several sources who have furnished reliable information in the past and who are in a position to be aware of a number of Subject's associates and activities have reported that [redacted]

[redacted] Milwaukee. On recent recontact, one of the sources amplified by saying that [redacted]

2. Another source of the same type as described above recently said that [redacted]

[redacted] JOHN ALIOTO, Subject's father-in-law. [redacted] IRS, Milwaukee, and has been regarded by some of Subject's associates as an individual who can help out in tax matters.

3. An informant who is known to furnish reliable information recently reported that a man named [redacted] (last name unknown), believed to be an employee of IRS, and [redacted] were both on an apparently friendly basis with the Subject and that [redacted] was endeavoring to get some information from the files of IRS for the Subject having to do with the current inquiry that IRS is making into Subject's tax matters.

4. In connection with investigation of STEVE JOHN DI SALVO, locally known as a musclemen and gambling supervisor for the Subject, it was determined that on April 16, 1961 a long-distance telephone call was made from DI SALVO's telephone number to Racine MELrose 2-1262, which, according to telephone company records, is listed to NICK R. DEMARK, 2129 LaSalle Street, Racine, Wisconsin. The 1961 Racine City Directory lists NICK R. DEMARK at this address, wife ANTONETTE, employment - officer, IRS. Racine Credit Bureau records list his employment as Collector - IRS since 1938.

Without being specific as to the identity of any individuals in IRS who might be responsible, one or another of the above informants has advised of the following incidents which may be pertinent to this matter:

1. Subject and his brother PETER in discussing their tax problems, brought on by IRS investigations, have said that they plan to [redacted] [redacted] did. According to the source furnishing this information, [redacted] [redacted]

Balistrieri, a Milwaukee hoodlum figure, is one of the forty targets selected for intensive investigation, looking toward early prosecution.

In my memorandum of August 11, 1961, transmitting a summary report on Balistrieri, I mentioned that [redacted]

Frank Peter Balistrieri, [redacted]

[redacted] Milwaukee, was the subject of administrative scrutiny by Internal Revenue Service as were several other employees who had exhibited an unwarranted interest in the Frank Peter Balistrieri tax case. I also mentioned that Peter Balistrieri, brother of Frank Peter Balistrieri, was planning, according to one of our informants, to [redacted]

For your additional information we learned through a check of [redacted] in the investigation of Steve DeSalvo, Milwaukee gambler and close associate of Frank Balistrieri, that on one occasion during the past year a telephone call was made from the residence telephone of DeSalvo to the residence telephone of [redacted]

Further, we have been advised by Internal Revenue Service that [redacted] employed in the Internal Revenue Service audit section at Milwaukee, had in the past apparently prepared a financial statement submitted to Internal Revenue Service by Frank Balistrieri.

On October 3, 1961, information received from a highly confidential source indicated that Frank Balistrieri was attempting to obtain information [redacted]

SYNOPSIS

Information has been received in the past indicating possible leaks to underworld from Milwaukee office, Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Recent information from highly confidential source indicates Milwaukee hoodlum Frank Peter Balistrieri

In view of current IRS request for copy of our summary report on Frank Peter Balistrieri, intensive efforts being made

He has also been under investigation by IRS, and approximately $35,000 in U. S. tax liens are currently filed against business operations in which he is or has been financially interested.

We have in the past received information concerning possible leaks from the Milwaukee IRS office.

On May 11, 1961, [redacted] confidentially advised that [redacted]

[redacted] Balistrieri.

In connection with the [redacted] angle of this case, [redacted] of the Department called and indicated Walter Barnes, Assistant Attorney General in Milwaukee, had passed along information regarding [redacted] with Balistrieri. [redacted] also mentioned the fact that, of course, our field office would consider the possible entrapment angle involved and he was assured this would be done. As a matter of fact the Milwaukee Office has already been contacted and its attention specifically called to these two items. Milwaukee has subsequently discussed the entrapment angle with not only Assistant Attorney General Barnes but also the U. S. Attorney in Milwaukee, both of whom indicated there is no element of entrapment under the circumstances thus far known.

Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has requested a copy of our summary report on Milwaukee hoodlum Frank Peter Balistrieri. Memorandum Evans to Belmont 10-6-61, set forth information indicating possible leaks to underworld from Milwaukee office of IRS. In our letter to the Attorney General of 10-10-61, we advised him of the information relating to these possible leaks and pointed out the peril of dissemination of our reports to IRS. We told the Attorney General we would furnish to IRS the report on Balistrieri, and at the same time, would advise IRS Commissioner [redacted] of the information indicating possible leaks in the Milwaukee IRS office.

On 10-10-61 [redacted] office said he was in South America and would not return until about 10-23-61. In his absence, this matter was discussed in detail with Assistant Commissioner [redacted]. [redacted] said he was most pleased to receive this information and asked that his thanks be conveyed to the Director. [redacted] added for the Director's confidential information, he, [redacted] has been concerned for some time over the possibility that the IRS Intelligence Division, which is responsible for the Organized Crime Program, has waited too long before taking positive disciplinary action against IRS employees involved in leaking information. He said he will discuss this matter in detail with Commissioner [redacted] and impress upon him the absolute necessity of taking prompt affirmative action against employees involved in leaks.

[redacted] said the information furnished him by us will certainly be a strong and sound basis for impressing [redacted] with the gravity of the situation. He added that [redacted] himself, has been very disturbed over possible leaks in IRS and this information in all probability will result in [redacted] making a strong move for a stern and rigid policy in the Intelligence Division against IRS employees who are leaking information.

Recent investigation developed that Balistrieri, Milwaukee top hoodlum and subject of crash investigation, was attempting to obtain information from Internal Revenue Service (IRS) files [redacted]

Walter Barnes, Assistant Attorney General, and U. S. Attorney James B. Brennan were consulted and both advise that in their opinion there is no element of entrapment under the circumstances so far known and it appears that the possibility of making a bribery case against subject is the most logical course of action to follow at this time. The Director of IRS at Milwaukee is also agreeable [redacted]

Milwaukee desires Bureau authority to give technical coverage to any future meeting. This would enable us to check on reliability of [redacted]

RECOMMENDATION

Approval is requested for Milwaukee to [redacted] coverage as outlined above to [redacted] Attached is a teletype to Milwaukee authorizing this coverage.

On October 21, 1961 MI T-1 said that Subject is extremely worried about his income tax case and is endeavoring to identify a stenographer or typist who may be able to furnish him information that she has handled in connection with this case in Internal Revenue Service.

The following information was obtained from MI T-1 by SA JOHN H. GASSAWAY on September 24, 1961:

MI 94-316

On September 24, 1961 informant advised that there are actually three cliques in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, of the Italian hoodlum element, and that at the present time the three cliques seem to be on the "outs" with each other, the reason for which he does not know; but believes it is possibly because they are dissatisfied with the leadership of FRANK BALISTRERI.

Informant stated that he understands that DOMINIC FRINZI, Attorney for the Italian organization, is supposed to make two trips this week to unknown places out side Milwaukee to contact top Italian organization leaders and try to settle the differences of the cliques. He advised that one clique is composed of MIKE ALBANO, AUGIE MANIACI, BLACKIE BROCCA, of Milwaukee and HARRY D'ANGELO of West Bend, Wis.

The second clique is headed by FRANK LA GALBO and he is not certain of the identity of the other members of this clique.

He stated that the third clique is composed of FRANK BALISTRERI, BUSTER BALESTRERE, STEVE DI SALVO, JOHNNY RIZZO, and BILL COVELLI of Kenosha. He said that he would endeavor to ascertain the exact reason for the trouble between the three cliques and was hoping to ascertain the places FRINZI visits in an endeavor to smooth the matter out.

This informant advised SA GASSAWAY on September 13, 1961 that Subject, in company with BUSTER BALESTRERE and STEVE DI SALVO as well as JOE ENEA, a bartender for Subject at Gallagher's, was trying to collect gambling debts owed to the Subject by various individuals.

This informant also advised on September 29, 1961 that STEVE DI SALVO and BUSTER BALESTRERE, operating on behalf of the Subject, were looking for a new bookie joint as they had been forced to close down due to law enforcement heat being put on and on October 2, 1961 Informant learned that JOHNNY RIZZO had re-opened his gambling game in Kenosha on Fridays and Sundays after RIZZO learned that the Kenosha Police raid on another gambling place in Kenosha was a "put up job." RIZZO had closed his game temporarily immediately following the raid for fear it might have been a legitimate raid.

Informant also advised with relation to Subject's gambling activities that TOM SORCE is operating a horse book in partnership with [redacted] and that PHIL VALLEY received a cut from this book. Informant also said that SORCE is controlled by the Subject in this operation.

MI T-4 on October 9, 1961 advised SA WILLIAM J. HIGGINS, JR. as follows:

JOHN CHARLES RIZZO's craps game at 2207 56th Street, Kenosha is again in operation and taking place on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights whereas formerly it ran only on Friday and Sunday nights. This game had been shut down for several weeks prior to Saturday, September 9, 1961, but re-opened at about 12:01 a.m. shortly after the raid by the Kenosha Police Department on [redacted] craps game in the YMCA rooms at 615 57th Street, 2nd floor, Kenosha, at 11:00 p.m. on September 8, 1961.

b7C

Informant stated that [redacted] and others are of the belief that this raid by the Kenosha Police Department was a "cover-up" job instigated by the RIZZO crowd to draw publicity away from their operation and make the Police Department look good in cracking down on gambling in the city. Informant stated this belief was based on [redacted]

On October 20, 1961 MI T-3 advised SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN that Subject was out of town and had taken a jet flight out of Chicago.

He operates Pitch's Lounge at 1801 North Humboldt and has Milwaukee Police Department No. 31987 as JOHN PICCURO. 8/1 MO

The following information was furnished by Kansas City on October 24, 1961: MO

On October 23, 1961 [redacted] Kansas City hoodlum, advised that he had no information regarding BALISTRERI. He advised that he was unable to attend the wedding on Saturday so would not know if BALISTRERI was present.

1/51
DIRECTOR, FBI (58-5008-2)
ATTN: SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS DIVISION

12/14/61

SAC, MILWAUKEE (58-81)

FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI, aka;

BRIBERY-AM

Rerep SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN, Milwaukee, dated 12/13/61, copies of which are enclosed herewith for the Bureau. Reference is also made to telephone conversation between Milwaukee and Inspector C.H. STANLEY, 12/13/61, and to Chicago airtel to the Bureau dated 12/11/61, entitled "Activities of Top Hoodlums in the Chicago Area."

For the information of the Bureau and Chicago the facts in captioned bribery case involving BALISTRIERI [redacted] have been thoroughly discussed with USA JAMES B. BRENNAN in conjunction with the over-all aspects of the BALISTRIERI Anti-Racketeering case and the IRS case involving BALISTRIERI.

Mr. BRENNAN is of the opinion that the facts in the bribery case are sufficient to constitute a violation of the Bribery Statute, Sec. 201, T18, U.S. Code. He said he was willing to authorize signing of a complaint and the issuance of a warrant based on the facts in this case as they now stand and would be willing to take the matter before the Grand Jury if that is required and on into Federal Court. He feels in addition to the possibility of actually convicting BALISTRIERI on the bribery case, the issuance of a warrant on the facts in this case is justified when the over-all affects on the investigation against BALISTRIERI are considered due to the following facts:

NOT RECORDED
83 DEC 20 1961

62 DEC 28 1961

MI 58-81

As the Bureau is aware, highly confidential sources of this office and [redacted] have furnished information that

[redacted]

[redacted] It is on the basis of these operations that IRS is endeavoring to make a tax fraud case against him, and BALISTRERI acting on legal advice has been failing to comply with IRS summons to produce records which are believed to be in the possession of [redacted]. Each time IRS endeavors to enforce one of these summons by court action and gets a favorable ruling in court, the matter is appealed to the 7th Circuit Court in Chicago and BRENNAN foresees a very long and difficult road to successfully completing the IRS case by normal procedures with the outcome in question for lack of sufficient records.

b6
b7E

He is aware of the fact that BALISTRERI spends a portion of each day in [redacted] which is actually his (BALISTRERI's) office and a theory, on which he and this office have discussed in this matter, is to effect the apprehension of BALISTRERI at this place which will enable arresting Agents to observe enough upon which a search warrant can be issued for these records and thereby probably provide Internal Revenue Services with the information they need to make perjury cases and tax cases against BALISTRERI.

It is also believed likely that BALISTRERI's business operations would be materially affected as far as the local authorities are concerned based upon information obtained from these records because of the fact that he has several taverns under his actual control but ostensibly operated by other individuals in violation of local ordinances.

Mr. BRENNAN enthusiastically supports this plan of action but is required by departmental regulations to consult with the Department, and in this regard he contacted WALTER BARNES, Special Assistant, Criminal Division, who is handling this particular case for the Department. Mr.

MI 58-81

BARNES apparently is not completely aware of the possibilities from this plan of action and desires to see and study the attached report along with previously submitted report in this case.

For the Bureau's information it does not appear likely that additional investigation other than re-interview of [redacted] will be productive to strengthen instant case and as pointed out in the administrative section of the enclosed report, such re-interview is not deemed advisable at this time.

The Bureau should also consider an over-all Bureau problem of gathering intelligence based upon information in referenced Chicago airtel plus the following information which Milwaukee has obtained relative to the matters discussed between GIANCANA and ALBERIZIO, beginning with page 5, last paragraph in referenced airtel. Milwaukee's information pertinent to the transaction discussed between these two hoodlums is as follows:

Due to the extensive remodeling, Hotel Associates, Inc. have

On 12/7/61 [redacted] who now operate Smith Hotel Enterprises, Inc., started foreclosure action against Hotel Associates, Inc. and asked the court to order the hotel and contents sold and $788,600 returned as unpaid debts. They alleged that the present owners failed to deposit $9,309 to the city for taxes, that they also failed to deposit with the mortgage holder copies of insurance policies to show that the property was covered, that they failed to keep the property in good condition and that they failed to keep the property free from liens. This action is to be heard in Circuit Court on December 29, 1961.

It is to be noted that TONY ACCARDO, a Chicago gangster, was sentenced to six years in prison November 18, 1960 in Chicago, Illinois on a charge of income tax evasion. This sentence grew out of a charge when ACCARDO claimed expenses in the use of a flashy Mercedes-Benz auto to deliver beer in Chicago. ACCARDO was a "star beer salesman" for Premium Beer Sales, Inc., Chicago, Illinois. Fox Head Brewery of Waukesha was paying Premium Beer Sales $5,000 a month, which reportedly was going to ACCARDO.

Surveillance of both CARL DENTICE and the PETER BALISTRIERI residence has shown that DENTICE continues to make frequent stops at the BALISTRIERI residence.

Attempts to locate unauthorized cigarettes in DE LISH US DISTRIBUTORS machines have continued, resulting in the confiscation of 35 packages of cigarettes from four DE LISH US machines in two Milwaukee locations. The cigarettes in question bore PITNEY-BOWES stamp numbers which could not be reconciled with the wholesale purchases by this licensed vendor.

Starting with a list of 96 suspected locations developed through prior investigation of DE LISH US DISTRIBUTORS cigarette machine locations (file 12-153-167, pages 41 - 46), and from information supplied by the ALL CITY ANSWERING SERVICE (file 12-153-14, pages 35 - 37) investigators confirmed 66 as having DENTICE owned machines. Five had no DENTICE machines, but did have DE LISH US DISTRIBUTORS cigarette machines. Sixteen had neither DENTICE or DE LISH US machines. Five of the suspected locations were no longer in business when checked, and four had not checked as of the date of this report.

Proprietors of establishments having DENTICE Machines were interviewed for details concerning the DENTICE service. The interviews follow, as does a compilation, in chart form, of information extracted from the interviews.

KATSUNE was interviewed at his place of business and stated substantially as follows:

The juke box in the establishment is owned by CARL DENTICE AMUSEMENT COMPANY. KATSUNE has had the service since 1962, continuing existing service when he took the business over. The machine is serviced every two weeks, by DENTICE, who pays KATSUNE a 50% commission, in cash. The commission usually amounts to $30.00 to $35.00 per month. KATSUNE receives a receipt at time of service. KATSUNE stated that he did not know, off hand, the amount received over the last three years.

MR. KATSUNE stated that in the past he had been re-imbursed for his purchase of a City of Milwaukee phonograph permit. He does not remember, however, if he was re-imbursed this year. KATSUNE denied ever receiving a loan from DENTICE.

The Rowe AMI juke box serial #732397 has City of Milwaukee tag #1749. Information from the Milwaukee City Clerk's office shows that serial #732392 be with said tag. This is a discrepancy of one digit.

KATSUNE'S cigarette and candy vending service is by PITCH'S DE LISH US DISTRIBUTORS. KATSUNE stated that an unknown service-man services the machine on a varying schedule. According to KATSUNE, he receives a cash commission at time of service. KATSUNE denied being re-imbursed for his cigarette license, and stated that he never received a loan from DE LISH US.

PHILLIP J. DAMICO, W/M, born 3-19-15, of 5448 North 13th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, was interviewed at PETE'S PIZZARIA, 7434 West Capitol Drive, Milwaukee. Through interview and inspection, the following information was obtained:

PHILLIP DAMICO, in partnership with his brother, ANTHONY, operates two PETE'S PIZZARIAS, at the Capitol Drive address and also at 4325 West North Avenue, Milwaukee.

One phonograph is on the Capitol Drive premises, a Seeburg Console, model LPCI, serial # 113959, owned by CARL DENTICE AMUSEMENT COMPANY. It has a valid City of Milwaukee amusement tag, #1777.

DAMICO said he had had the machine for many years, having brought it from a former pizzeria on 27th Street a few years ago because the machine had the restaurant's name on it. Collections from the phonograph are made every two weeks and proceeds are split 50/50. Payment is in cash, accompanied by a receipt for bookkeeping purposes. DAMICO does not know who makes collections or what the average profit from the machine amounts to, because he normally manages the pizzeria on North Avenue. He has known CARL DENTICE, only as a business contact, for 10 or 12 years and is satisfied with DENTICE'S service. He has never had any other financial dealings with DENTICE.

The restaurant has a valid City of Milwaukee phonograph permit posted.

There are no coin operated amusement devices, but the restaurant has one cigarette machine, which DAMICO owns himself.

MRS. FLORENCE H. VOLPANO, W/F, born 11-19-06, of 12 Beach Park, Pewaukee, Wisconsin, was interviewed at VOLPANO'S, 2483 West Capitol Drive, Milwaukee. Through interview and inspection, the following information was obtained:

The tavern-restaurant is operated as a corporation, VOLPANO'S, INC., of which MRS. VOLPANO is President, [redacted] is Agent and Secretary. [redacted] name appears on all required licenses and permits.

One phonograph, a Seeburg Stereo AY-160, serial #166439, on the premises, is owned by CARL DENTICE AMUSEMENT COMPANY. It has a valid City of Milwaukee amusement tag, #1744. VOLPANO'S has had DENTICE'S machines for about five years. MRS. VOLPANO cannot recall the previous distributor's name, but said she switched to get better service.

Collections from the machine are made approximately bi-weekly by a man believed to be "one of the owners." MRS. VOLPANO does not know how much money is involved because [redacted] handles these matters. She does know, however, that the machine is not used very much because of the piped-in music.

A valid City of Milwaukee phonograph license is posted. DENTICE pays for both this permit and the machine tag.

A cigarette machine on the premises is owned by VOLPANO'S. Cigarettes are purchased directly from WISCONSIN TOBACCO COMPANY.

There are no coin-operated amusement devices.

Details:

The 66 confirmed locations accounted for 99 DENTICE owned juke boxes and amusement devices. Of the 99, 83 were located in the City of Milwaukee. Of those, 76 had the required City of Milwaukee amusement tags displayed. The remaining seven either had no tag, or the tag was not visible. Sixteen machines were located in municipalities outside the City of Milwaukee, most of which do not require individual machine tags.

A list obtained on December 23, 1969 from the Milwaukee City Clerk's Office (see file 12-153-169, pages 23-25) showed that DENTICE had 99 machines tagged in Milwaukee.

The following five locations were found not to have DENTICE juke boxes or amusement devices, but to have DE LISH US DISTRIBUTORS cigarette machines; also included are the interviews at these locations:

[redacted] Wisconsin, [redacted] EL CID (formerly known as THE ZOO), a bar at 1566 West National Avenue, Milwaukee, along with [redacted] Wisconsin.

[redacted] was interviewed relative to the cigarette vending machine on the premises. The machine has a brand name of Continental and is the type where the packs cannot be observed from the outside. [redacted] stated that the machine had been on the premises for only about a week and that next week, he was going to have it removed. The reason for this, according to [redacted] was that the cigarettes were not selling that well (50¢ a pack), and that there was the danger of it being stolen as the door leading to the premises is always kept open. (The machine actually stands in the hotel lobby, between the PARKAY HOTEL, 1570 West National Avenue, Milwaukee, and the EL CID bar, 1566 West National Avenue, Milwaukee.)

[redacted] advised that a DE LISH US VENDING cigarette machine had been stolen last summer, and he heard that it had been found in the vicinity of 23rd and Vliet Streets, in a smashed condition. PITCH'S DE LISH US DISTRIBUTORS has a warehouse at 2754 North 30th Street, Milwaukee.)

CARL DENTICE has filed application for a coin operated amusement device license on June 26, 1970. The license was granted. (page 126 - copies of license) It is to be noted that DENTICE denies owning any cigarette machines on the notarized application in question. Investigation shows that DENTICE purchased the following cigarette machines during 1966, 1967 and 1968.

One Rowe Riviera Cigarette Machine, purchased 5-15-68, serial number 02368, delivered to SALLY'S STEAK HOUSE, cost $465.00, see reference page 6 of this report.

One Rowe Riviera, model 526, cigarette machine, purchased 4-04-68, serial number 526-03-963, delivered to SILVER DINER WEST, cost $478.95, reference page 6 of this report.

One Rowe Cigarette Vendor, model 526, purchased 2-15-68, serial number 526-02868, delivered to THE BARN, cost $465.00, reference Page 3 of 12-153-14.

One Riviera 25-526 Cigarette Vendor, purchased 12-28-67, serial number 526-02325, cost $478.95, reference page 6 of 12-153-14.

One Celebrity 20/800, purchased 10-13-67, serial number 160-2488, cost, $309.00, reference page 5 of 12-153-14.

One Rowe Riviera 20/100 cigarette machine, purchased 8-10-67, serial number 160-96432, delivered to ALFIES, cost $458.35, reference page 5, of 12-153-14.

One Seeburg Cigarette Machine, purchased 4-08-67, serial number 4E5TXTXM, cost $360.50, reference page 33 of 12-153-14.

One Rowe 20/800 Cigarette Machine Vendor, purchased 10-13-66, serial number 91318, delivered to THE SCENE, cost $410.55, reference page 26 of 12-153-14.

One Rowe Riviera Cigarette Machine Vendor, purchased 6-21-66, serial number 160-82919, delivered to the AD LIB, cost $410.55, reference page 26 of 12-153-14.

Some of the nine machines purchased by DENTICE are on the list of machines claimed to be owned by [redacted] (see pages 20 through 25 of serial 12-153-14, a report dated April 7, 1969). It is this type of activity that leads us to believe that BALISTRERI is actually the owner of a part of DE LISH US route.

Machines in several of [redacted] locations were inspected on May 22, 1970 (page 119) and cigarettes other than those invoiced to DE LISH US were found in the machines. The cigarettes were confiscated but no charges were filed due to the possibility that the cigarettes were traded by a company representative for old ones. According to [redacted] a change in the administrative code was drafted several months ago and sent to the Attorney General for approval. [redacted] advised [redacted] on August 10, 1970 that nothing has been done to change the code as of this date because the Attorney General's Office has not acted on the proposed change. b6 b7C

Lack of uniform inspection procedures on the part of the Justice Department as well as PITNEY-BOWES failure to have complete control over ink sales leaves the door open to active counterfeiting that is as of now undetected. It has been determined that PITNEY-BOWES cannot detect a good counterfeit stamp if their ink is used. Recent information received by the Justice Department indicates that large quantities of unstamped cigarettes are being stolen and are being sold for as little as $1.00 to $1.25 a carton. b6 b7C

Information supplied by DENTICE and [redacted] to the Milwaukee City Assessor for property tax purposes do not compare favorably with our information on actual purchases of equipment or as to number of units reported to the State at license time.

LEAD: Attempt to get recommended change in administrative code as it relates to the trading of cigarettes into effect.

Lay out chart showing discrepancies in equipment owned reported to the Justice Department, Tax Department and Milwaukee City Assessor.

Meet with Director MEYERS and <sup>Asst. Director</sup> CHAYKA and discuss PITNEY-BOWES ink stamp. Recommend new procedures for cigarette inspections and submission of samples to the factory for examination.

Discuss the possibility of using stamp other than PITNEY-BOWES stamp.

Discuss the possibility of using this investigation in the proposed Milwaukee grand Jury with Assistant Attorney General DAVID MEBANE.

Send copy of this report to [redacted] and DAVID MEBANE.

Re-check at PIONEER SALES for latest activity in both the DENTICE and [redacted] accounts.

Balistreri Used Business as Front, US Tells Court

The Justice Department charged Thursday that a jukebox business operated by Frank P. Balistreri, a nightclub owner convicted of income tax evasion, was a front for other activities.

The government did not specify what activities, but emphasized that the businesses being operated out of 2559 N. Downer Ave. starting in 1964 "were merely to disguise other activities of the plaintiff at the premises and elsewhere."

In a 165 page affidavit, the Justice Department made that and other allegations to back up its request that it be allowed to take depositions from 11 persons — most of them close business and personal friends of Balistreri—to help prove its case.

The government contends that it needs the testimony in connection with the $1,750,000 damage suit that Balistreri has begun against several former FBI agents and the Wisconsin Telephone Co.

Balistreri contends that illegal electronic eavesdropping was used at the Downer Ave. premises during an income tax investigation that resulted in his conviction in March, 1967. He is free on bail — he was sentenced to two years in prison — pending a hearing on his latest appeal. Balistreri also was fined $10,000.

His son, Joseph P., an attorney who has been handling the case for his father, could not be reached for comment.

Neil R. Peterson, a Justice Department attorney in Washington, subpoenaed the 16 witnesses. Atty. Balistreri objected, and Federal Judge Myron L. Gordon directed Peterson to file additional information explaining why the depositions were necessary.

Through the witnesses he had subpoenaed, Peterson contended, he would prove that Balistreri — not someone else, as Balistreri had testified in a trial — rented the Downer Ave. premises under a false name.

"He did this either because no one would have been willing to rent to him in his true name or because it was essential that his identification with whatever operation was to be conducted at the premises be kept secret," Peterson's brief said.

Three separate entities did business at that address, Peterson continued. "All . . . insofar as they actually did business, were paying part of the proceeds of that business to plaintiff . . ." the brief declared.

The government said two of the businesses involved the sale and servicing of jukeboxes, which, the brief went on, was profitable, with proceeds going to Balistreri.

The third business, said to have operated out of that address, was not identified.

Among persons the government wants to examine are Joseph Caminiti of N76-W14993 Menomonee Falls Dr., Menomonee Falls, a trustee of Council No. 30 of the Teamsters Union; Peter E. Picciurro, 1016 E. Hamilton Ave., operator of Pitch's De Lish Us Distributors, 2754 N. 30th St.; Walter Brocca, 4023 S. Kansas Ave., a former jukebox dealer; Carl Dentice, 8210 W. New Jersey Ave., from whom the government alleges Brocca bought jukeboxes, and Mrs. Rose Palmisano, 4928 N. Hollywood Ave., Whitefish Bay, Balistreri's sister.

This corporation was set up to buy Mdse. from bankrupt, fire mdse and used equipment. He stated that no business was done or if any it was less than $100.00. No records were kept. I recommend a late filing fee for the 2nd quarter of 1964 and forget the rest.

Any further liability established would not be worth the effort.

Personal contact was made with Paul Bogosian on 9-17-65.

The Security Notice was given to him, and I explained why these various compliance steps became necessary.

He reiterated what [ ] had stated when service of previous doornages had been made: that there had been no business activity, and that he couldn't understand why no returns had been filed or response made to previous correspondence. b6 b7c

He stated he would "Build a fire", under Attorney [ ] who presumably is handling the matter.

I would suggest addressing all future correspondence to Paul Bogosian at 724 North Jefferson Street, Milwaukee. The premises at Downer Ave. have been vacated.

Personal contact was made with Paul Bogosian and the Notice of Determination given to him.

I explained why the dooimage was made, and informed him he had also incurred penalties for not filing. He stated there had been no business activity, but agreed that no valid excuse exists for not filing.

He further stated he would "Build a fire" under Attorney [ ] and see that the matter gets settled.

From previous contacts made, and subsequent investigation, it appears this whole thing may dwindle down to only the penalties for not filing.

I would suggest any future correspondence be address@d to Paul Bogosian at 724 North Jefferson Street, Milwaukee. The premises at Downer Ave. have been vacated.

VI. Representative's Report

Have been unable to get to first base to begin a closeout. Could not acquire any more information than E. Kessel reported on Sept. 2, 1965. [redacted] Read Investment Co., owners of the business premises at 2559 N. Downer Ave., stated he is "under the impression" that the lease which was signed by a Frank Bell is actually Frank Balistreri and that [redacted] but hastened to add this information is "off the record". The premises were vacated by Continental Sales in Oct. 1965. Have been unsuccessful in attempting to contact [redacted] whom I believe lives at [redacted]. Had information she worked at "Gallaghers". One night I called Gallaghers and feel sure [redacted] answered the phone personally but stated no one by the name of [redacted] worked there. Numerous calls to Balistreri supposedly never answered and never answered requests to call back. Made several personal stops at 1634 N. Jackson St., Balistreri's office [redacted] No one answered the door although I feel sure someone was in - perhaps they have a peep-hole arrangement. I feel it would necessitate a search warrant to gain entrance. Spoke to Casner's Kitchen Inc and Ball Photo and Gift Shop, adjoining Continental Sales on Downer Ave. and learned that Continental was seldom open during regular business hours. According to the janitor there was more activity on a Sunday. He had on different occasions noticed customers who acted suspiciously, looking up and down the street before dashing to their cars and taking off. Frankly I never ran into a more evasive group and feel I've spent enough time getting nowhere.

YOU MAY NOT USE THIS TABLE IF:

1. Income at Line 10, page 2, is $5000 or more.
2. You claim itemized deductions.
3. You claim standard deduction.
4. You moved into or out of the state during the year.
5. You file a return for less than 12 months because of a change in your accounting period.

ENTER TAX FROM THIS TABLE

This table automatically allows your personal exemptions and about 9% of your adjusted gross income for deductions.

*For Married Persons When Spouse Claims Entire Exemption

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. MARRIED PERSONS — DIVISION OF EXEMPTIONS

The above table is arranged to cover those instances in which one spouse claims all and the other none of the personal exemptions. However, when husband and wife have separate incomes and no dependents each may determine his or her tax from column No. 4. If they have dependents, they may divide the exemption between them for maximum advantage (provided however that the exemption allowed for any one person may not be split). In such case each spouse deducts $7 for each dependent claimed from the tax as shown in Column 4.

2. SINGLE PERSON WITH DEPENDENTS (not claiming head of family exemption) determines his tax by deducting $7 for each dependent from the tax shown in Column 4 of the Optional Tax Table.

3. HEAD OF FAMILY — A SINGLE PERSON WITH DEPENDENTS claiming Head of Family exemption determines his tax from one of the Columns 6 to 11 corresponding to the column for husband and wife with the same number of dependents.

4. MARRIED PERSONS OR HEADS OF FAMILIES WITH MORE THAN 6 DEPENDENTS determine their tax by subtracting $7 for each such dependent over 6 from the tax shown in Column 11.

5. CHANGE OF STATUS DURING YEAR. See "PERSONAL EXEMPTIONS" below Installment Payment Schedule on Page 1 for effect of birth, death, divorce or separate maintenance decree.

FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI

Character:

Synopsis:

On May 11, 1961,

Subject had appeared at the office of Internal Revenue Service, Milwaukee on May 9, 1961, with partial books of the Ben-Ray Corp. and the Roosevelt Hotel Corp. for the year 1959, that these books were not complete, and the books for 1956, 1957, and 1958, called for by the summons to which BALISTRERI had responded, were not produced at all. BALISTRERI was accompanied by his attorney at this meeting and claimed that the rest of the records called for by the summons had been destroyed by a fire at 1634 North Jackson on June 4, 1960. 1634 North Jackson is the ancestral home of Subject

On May 15, 1961, a preliminary investigation relative to the above fire reflects that there were no books or records in this fire; and it therefore appears that BALISTRERI may have opened himself up to a perjury violation.

On February 18, 1958, _____ Registrar's Office at Marquette University made available records reflecting that FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI entered Marquette University, College of Liberal Arts from Lincoln High School, Milwaukee, in September of 1935. He was admitted to the university on probation which was continued to October 28, 1936. He completed his course of study in June of 1938 with ninety-eight semester hours and 135 qualitative points. These records also reflect that he was admitted as a regular student to the Marquette Law School on July 5, 1939 and withdrew on January 18, 1940 because of illness. He re-entered on September 23, 1940 and withdrew March 26, 1941. The university records reflect that he actually received grades for only the first semesters enrollment. Marquette University records reflect BALISTRIERI's home address as 1634 N. Jackson Street, his date of birth as May 27, 1918, his parent as JOSEPH BALISTRIERI, 1634 N. Jackson Street, whose occupation was trucking.

The morgue of the Milwaukee Journal, a daily metropolitan newspaper in Milwaukee, carrying a "green sheet" story dated May 18, 1957 reflecting that there are seven FRANK BALISTRERI in Milwaukee, all cousins and grandsons of FRANK BALISTRERI who came from Palermo, Italy in 1906. The story reflects that eventually the elder BALISTRERI got into the hauling business and held the contract for garbage hauling in the city of Milwaukee; that as each of his seven sons matured, he took them into business with him; that each of these sons named their first born son FRANK.

The article further reflects that three of the elder BALISTRERI sons [redacted] and PETER now live in California, where in San Diego they are engaged in the cafe and trucking business. The other sons [redacted] are in Milwaukee. All the sons of the elder FRANK BALISTRERI continue to operate a business known as Balistreri Brothers and Milwaukee Club. This story further reflects that FRANK PETER BALISTRERI, the subject of this investigation, after having been married in 1939 (it should be noted he was actually married November 18, 1939) went to his grandfather FRANK and informed him that he wanted a tavern owned by his grandfather and located at 801 W. Clybourn Street, Milwaukee. This story further reflects that the juke box installed in the tavern made more money than the beer and whiskey sold over the bar. The tavern, the Milwaukee Club, was reportedly given to the subject of this investigation by his grandfather.

The "green sheet" article further reflects that the subject borrowed money to buy a flashy juke box, too flashy for his own tavern, therefore, he rented it to another tavern keeper for 50% of the take and that BALISTRERI finally multiplied this original investment to where at one time he had 200 juke boxes operating. However, he supposedly gave up this business in 1943 and went into the hauling business, the family firm. However, he was given an opportunity to lease the Roosevelt Hotel at 412 W. Wells Street, which he did in 1946, thus going into the tavern and restaurant business. This article further reflects that in 1947, BALISTRERI put on a boxing match under the sponsorship of the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund to make money for that fund. In reality he guaranteed $7,100 and lost $6,000 on the venture. The article reflects that eventually he lost $30,000 in his boxing enterprises before he made a "haul" when he cleaned up on the ROCKY GRAZIANO - VINCE CEDONE fight on May 9, 1950.

advised that FRANK P. BALISTRERI, 1417 N. Humboldt Avenue, Milwaukee, holds Wisconsin license number 1634418, which will expire on May 27, 1959. He is described as born May 27, 1918, eyes brown, height 5'8", weight, 160 pounds, occupation trucking contractor.

the annual report filed in March of 1957 with the Secretary of State, Wisconsin, lists the following officers: President FRANK BALISTRERI, Vice President JOSEPH BALISTRERI, 7807 N. Santa Monica, Secretary-Treasurer, PETER BALISTRERI, 1640 N. Jackson, Board of Directors-Same as officers. The Badger State Boxing Club, Inc., has not promoted a fight in more than a year and informants have been unable to gather information indicating that any fights are planned in the near future.

Physical surveillances of the subject indicated that the subject normally leaves his home between 10:30 and 12 o'clock noon each day, that he proceeds directly to the Trade Winds Tavern, 829 N. 3rd Street where he remains until early evening and that later in the evening he goes to the Roosevelt Hotel to supervise the operations of the Melody Room and the Downtowner, which is two doors away. These surveillances have disclosed a constant interchanging of the female entertainers between the Melody Room and the Downtowner. Wisconsin law prohibits entertainers to associate with the customers at their place of employment. It is apparent that BALISTRERI is circumventing this law by having the Melody Room entertainers proceed to the Downtowner where they associate with the customers and having Downtowner entertainers proceed to the Melody Room where they associate with the customers at that night club.

This is exemplified by the testimony of [redacted] of the Milwaukee Police Department, who on October 12, 1957 testified that WITKOWSKI, the Milwaukee City Clerk, had granted BALISTRERI a temporary amusement license at no expense to him on a previous occasion when BALISTRERI operated the Villa Venice at 2603 W. North Avenue. This testimony was brought forth at a time when the Milwaukee Police Department had recommended to the licensing committee of the Milwaukee City Council that BALISTRERI be refused a license for the operation of his various enterprises in the city of Milwaukee. It is also pointed out that BALISTRERI's attorney in connection with the hearing conducted by the licensing committee of the Milwaukee City Council, was [redacted] who is also [redacted] for Milwaukee county, Wisconsin.

The May 18, 1969, edition of the "Milwaukee Journal" contained an article captioned "State Charts Attack on Organized Crime." The article reflected that the Wisconsin Council on Criminal Justice adopted a plan which was presented by Attorney General ROBERT W. WARREN during which it was stated: "Wisconsin has both resident and operating organized crime groups. The operating element appears to be concentrated in southeast Wisconsin while other elements are located in several other areas of the State." The report stated that FRANK P. BALISTRERI was the head of the mafia family in Milwaukee and noted that Senator JOHN L. MC CLELLAN had made a similar observation on the Senate floor during March, 1969. Although the report noted that BALISTRERI had been sentenced to two years in prison after his conviction for income tax evasion, it said his operation had not diminished because of his conviction and was not expected to diminish due to his imprisonment.

During March, 1969, Senator JOHN MC CLELLAN named FRANK BALISTRIERI as the head of one of 22 mafia families existing in the United States.

On September 18, 1967, BALISTRIERI was sentenced to two years in prison and fined $10,000 plus court costs on income tax evasion conviction. BALISTRIERI lost his appeal before the Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court. On appeal for rehearing before the United States Supreme Court, the court ordered the case back to the United States District Court for rehearing to determine if electronic surveillance by the Government had influenced the Government's case. The first rehearing was held on July 30, 1969, and was continued to October 12, 1969.

Synopsis:

"The Milwaukee Sentinel" of November 11, 1964 in an article captioned, "DA Aide Bars Press in Cafe Case", states that agents of the State Beverage and Cigarette Tax Division have been investigating Gallagher's for a period of two months and claim that Gallagher's should not be allowed to permit minors on the premises since less than 50 per cent of its business is in food. Gallagher's maintains that it is a restaurant. The Wisconsin State Law allows minors on premises if more than 50 per cent of the business is in food.

An agent of the State Beverage and Cigarette Tax Division stated that on one occasion an agent asked for coffee with sugar and cream, but the waitress was unable to find sugar. On numerous occasions agents were unable to order food of any kind in the restaurant. During the entire period they were only able to purchase 3 hamburgers. At one point an examination was made of the freezer at the restaurant and only ten steaks could be found. On one occasion the waitress told them "there isn't any food".

DOMINIC FRINZI, attorney for PETER BALISTRIERI, produced at the hearing a series of newspaper advertisements dated in 1963 and earlier which featured steak and chicken dinners at Gallagher's; also a letter from the Continental Menu Club, 2040 West Wisconsin Avenue, which stated that between July 1, 1963 and June 30, 1964, 2,349 coupon books had been sold or given to the public, which included a coupon which had Gallagher's name on it, stating persons who produced it would be entitled to two dinners for the price of one.

"The Milwaukee Sentinel" for November 20, 1964 in an article captioned, "Balistrieri Tax Writs", stated that Deputy District Attorney BEN WEINER from Milwaukee County, said that figures presented to him for the period of November 1, 1963 to November 1, 1964 showed that 65 per cent of Gallagher's business was in food. The article also reported that tax warrants had been served at the hearing, charging PETER BALISTRIERI, operator of Gallagher's, with nonpayment of $6,123.11 in state sales taxes and also with a warrant charging failure to pay $13.49 state taxes as an officer of the Ben-Kay Corporation, which does business as the Downtowner Cocktail Lounge. PETER BALISTRIERI denied being affiliated with the latter, which is operated by his brother, FRANK BALISTRIERI.

"The Milwaukee Journal" of August 17, 1963 reported that a tax return against Gallagher's Steak House in the amount of $9,588.34 covering withholding taxes owed for 1961, 1962 and 1963 and excise taxes for 1962. The article went on to state that previous tax returns totaling $13,530.88 had been recorded with no releases shown on the register of deeds' records indicating that they had been paid.

Date September 10, 1963

Upon receipt of such information making action desirable, agent entered Gallagher's Restaurant, 829 North Third Street at 11:50 p.m. September 4, 1963 and observed those present

FRANK DALISTRERI was standing at the east end of the bar with his brother PETE.

DALISTRERI was asked if JOE GURERA was in town and he promptly became indignant as to why he would have any knowledge of GURERA's activities and whether or not he was in town. He was informed that information had been received indicating that GURERA might be in town and since we were interested in GURERA's activities and knew that he had been closely associated with DALISTRERI and Gallagher's it was felt advisable to inquire.

DALISTRERI subsequently acknowledged that he would be pretty sure to know it if GURERA was in town and that to his knowledge he was not.

DALISTRERI then took the initiative in continuing the conversation by berating the FBI for "wasting time" investigating him when we should be investigating the sources of our information and determining who was paying off the "Irish politicians" to permit prostitution, narcotics, and other vice activities to happen in Milwaukee. DALISTRERI was asked not only then but several times later during the conversation which lasted until about 1:00 a.m. September 5, 1963 as to whether he had any specifics as to his allegation and whether he would or ever had furnished any information to any law enforcement agency.

He said that he would furnish information to law enforcement agencies only if he felt it involved the security of the country such as Communist activities or information relative to a murder but that any other activities of a criminal nature which came to his attention would not be reported as he did not feel it would be any of his business.

On 9/4-5/63 at Milwaukee, Wisconsin File #       

by       

Date dictated 9/9/63

BALISTRERI was insistent upon being advised of some specific incident which would prompt the FBI to afford him investigative attention, and he was finally asked to explain his association with JOE GURERA and the reason for GURERA coming to Milwaukee since we had received information from a number of sources that he, BALISTRERI, had brought GURERA to Milwaukee.

He stated that this was fantastic and that he did not even know GURERA's full name until after the latter arrived in Milwaukee. He said that he learned then that GURERA, who is a brother-in-law to BUSTER BALESTRE, a distant relative of FRANK's, came to Milwaukee to get his children in a new environment and get them to attend school here. He said that GURERA was unable to purchase a house or to enter a business in Milwaukee and his plans just didn't work out and he, therefore, returned to Kansas City with his family. He acknowledged that GURERA was in Gallagher's on a very frequent basis but said that these were just casual visits and no arrangement existed between him and GURERA and that it was unbelievable that we should even think that GURERA had been brought to Milwaukee to assist BALISTRERI and his associates in collecting payoffs or that he and his associates were responsible for the death of ANTHONY BERNAT in Kenosha.

BALISTRERI stated frequently during the conversation that his troubles stemmed from political motivations by the KENNEDYS simply because his name was a "fascinating Italian name." He acknowledged that Gallagher's was his and stated that it was not even making expenses. He declined, however, to explain why or how he kept this financially losing endeavor in operation. He also stated that all of his troubles with law enforcement stemmed from stories put out by the Special Assignment Squad of the Milwaukee Police Department, and he accused the officers of this squad of a variety of personal misconduct activities and said that none of the rest of the Milwaukee Police Department concurred with the Special Assignment Squad's appraisal of BALISTRERI and his associates.

BALISTRERI said that his son JOSEPH had returned to Madison where he had two more years of schooling and that he was already graduated from the University of Notre Dame, that he intended fully to keep his son away from the tavern business as far as possible; he acknowledged that the son had worked there during the past summer and said that his son certainly had never made any statements relative to his, BALISTRERI's, position in the syndicate in Milwaukee and that it was ridiculous to believe that the son had made such statements, first because there was no factual basis to it, and secondly, because the son was too smart. He again reiterated at some length that the FBI should look to the basis of its sources of information.

At the conclusion of the interview Gallagher's Restaurant was kept under observation with the following results:

At 2:15 a.m. BALISTRERI left Gallagher's and went to the Downtowner where he remained until 2:45 a.m. His car was entered in the driveway of his home at 3:20 a.m.

The library of the "Milwaukee Journal," a daily metropolitan Milwaukee newspaper on May 18, 1957 carried an article over the byline of LARRY LAWRENCE in the "Green Sheet" of that paper reflecting that as of that time there were seven FRANK BALISTRERI's in Milwaukee, all cousins and grandsons of FRANK BALISTRERI who came to Milwaukee from Palermo, Italy in 1906. This article reflects that eventually the elder FRANK BALISTRERI got into the hauling business in Milwaukee and had contract for garbage hauling in the City of Milwaukee, that as each of his seven sons matured, he took them into business with him and that each of these sons named their first born son FRANK in honor of their father.

This article reportedly based on an interview by the writer LARRY LAWRENCE and FRANK PETER BALISTRERI reflects that three of the elder FRANK BALISTRERI's sons namely FRANK, JR., THOMAS and PETER migrated to San Diego, California, where they engaged in the cafe and trucking business. The other sons JOSEPH, Subject's father, CARLO, SALVATORE and DOMINIC remained in Milwaukee where they and the three brothers then in California continued to operate businesses known as "Balistreri Brothers" and "Milwaukee Cinder Company."

By way of Subject's early start in the tavern and coin operated machine business, LAWRENCE's article reflects that FRANK PETER BALISTRERI after having been married in 1940 (it should be noted he was actually married on November 18, 1939) went to his grandfather FRANK BALISTRERI and informed him that he wanted a tavern owned by his grandfather located at 801 West Clybourn Street,

Milwaukee. The story goes on to state that the juke box installed in the tavern made more money for FRANK BALISTRIERI that did beer and whisky sold over the bar. According to the article, this tavern known as the Hillside Club was reportedly given to FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI by his grandfather and that thereafter the Subject of this investigation borrowed money to buy a flashy juke box, too flashy for his own Hillside Club, and therefore he rented it to another tavern keeper for fifty per cent of the take, with the net result FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI finally multiplied this original investment into approximately two hundred juke boxes.

According to the article BALISTRIERI gave up the tavern and juke box business in 1943 and went into the family hauling business. However, in 1946 he was given an opportunity to lease what was then the Hotel Roosevelt, at 412 West Wells Street and thus he entered into the tavern and restaurant business.

The LAWRENCE article also reflects that in 1947 BALISTRIERI put on a boxing match under the sponsorship of the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund to make money for that fund, that in reality he guaranteed $7,100 and lost $6,000 on the venture but that he continued in the boxing business and eventually lost $30,000 in boxing enterprises before he made a "haul" when he cleaned up on the Rocky Graziano--Vince Cedone fight on May 9, 1950.

On October 28, 1960 in checking the records of the Register of Deeds Office, Milwaukee, Wisconsin learned that Page 570 of Volume 4084 of Deeds disclosed that on October 22, 1960 [redacted] conveyed to FRANK PETER BALISTRERI and ANTONINA BALISTRERI his wife, for one dollar and other good and valuable consideration, the following described property:

Also in the Register of Deeds Office on Page 265 of Volume 4238 of Mortgages, there is recorded a purchase money mortgage in the amount of $20,000 in favor of the Catholic Knights Insurance Society of Wisconsin reflecting that FRANK P. BALISTRERI and his wife ANTONINA are the mortgagors of the property located at 3043 North Shepard Avenue.

It has been observed that this property is a substantial brick home in the north-east section of Milwaukee approximately twenty to thirty years of age. It is located in an area of substantial homes. At various times, late October, 1960 through early January, 1961 noted that there appeared to be a considerable amount of remodeling being done at 3043 North Shepard Avenue since there were various construction, electrical and plumbing contractors' trucks and employees observed going in and out of the building.

With reference to the home at 1417 North Humboldt Avenue, occupied by Subject and his family prior to November or early December, 1960, on July 13, 1961

Office of County Treasurer, Milwaukee, advised that this property was purchased by FRANK BALISTRIERI from [redacted] on January 16, 1946 by warranty deed recorded at Page 354, Volume 2192 of Deeds in the Register of Deeds Office, Milwaukee County and is described as follows:

LEGITIMATE ENTERPRISES

Concerning the portion of information as to date of incorporation, etc. only, this information being obtained from the Secretary of State's Office, Madison, Wisconsin, which is set forth for each of the following corporations, Secretary of State's Office, State Capitol, advised on July, 17 and 18, 1961 as follows.

advised that the phrase "in bad standing" means that the corporation so designated has failed to file its annual report for one or more years and has been classified as "in bad standing" because of this failure. He said that the Secretary of State's Office does not follow up on these cases and, therefore, has no way of knowing whether or not these corporations are continuing in existence, unless a corporation specifically writes to the Secretary of State to advise that it is being discontinued.

advised that he believes some question arises concerning the legal status of a corporation "in bad standing," but he did not know the specific law on the matter. He said that a corporation in bad standing can regain its former status by paying $10 for each year during which it failed to file an annual report.

The date of the last annual report received is listed under each of the corporations set out below. advised that his office is very much behind in its filing, and there is a possibility that some of the reports due in 1961 have not yet been filed in the corporation folders. This possibility is believed to be slight, however, since groups of reports not yet filed in corporation folders were also checked on the corporations which lack reports due in 1961.

Investigation has established that FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI either completely owns, is listed on public records as an officer or director, or has an interest in the corporations set forth below. For the most part, information set out here has been obtained from public records that on the evening of November 24, 1958 BALISTRERI advised approximately 25 local politicians as his guests at the

On July 21, 1961 it was determined that there was no local, state or federal process currently outstanding for subject. On this same date

Internal Revenue Service, advised that on March 7, 1961 Internal Revenue Service had served a summons on Subject as president of Ben-Kay, Inc., and Hotel Roosevelt, Inc. to produce his books and records and be prepared to give testimony on March 17, 1961. On March 17, 1961

Subject appeared with counsel but without books and records and refused to give testimony. This information was reported to the Regional Counsel of Internal Revenue Service, and the Regional Counsel subsequently replied that because of circumstances, the summons in question would not be enforced, it appearing that a cabaret tax investigation had been made for the above corporations for the period January 1, 1957 to September of 1959 and enforcing the above summons at this time could conceivably jeopardize the cabaret tax cases. However, notices of a second inspection of the books and records were issued to BALISTRERI for the above corporations, and thereafter, i.e. on May 9, 1961, BALISTRERI and his attorneys did come in. During the course of this appearance before agents of the Internal Revenue Service, BALISTRERI did give testimony and surrender books and records for both corporations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1959 and said all other records had been destroyed by a fire in a garage at the rear of 1634 North Jackson Street where they had been stored. No further legal action has been taken to date.

On May 15, 1961                      advised that preliminary investigation relative to the fire above mentioned has disclosed that there were no records in the fire and that it appeared that Internal Revenue Service may have a perjury case against Subject.

on July 21, 1961 advised that on December 20, 1960                      Investigators of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division had, at the request of Internal Revenue Service, inspected the premises of the Downtowner, 340 West Wells Street, operated by Ben-Kay, Inc. of which Subject is president and Gallagher's Steakhouse, operated by Milwaukee Tradewinds, Inc., of which Subject's brother is president and for which enterprises Subject holds himself out as manager, and the investigators were unable to find the books and records as required by Section 5124 of the Internal Revenue Code, which requires a dealer to keep in his place of business a complete record of distilled spirits, wines and beer received, showing:

1. quantities thereof;
2. from whom received;
3. the receiving dates.

According to                      Section 7203 of the Internal Revenue Code makes it a misdemeanor not to have such records on the premises, which misdemeanor calls for a penalty of $10,000 fine or one year in jail or both, plus costs of any legal action necessary. A notice of the deficiency and demanding compliance as set forth above was dispatched by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division to the above business concerns on December 23, 1960.

On July 21, 1961 the United States tax liens filed in the Register of Deeds Office, Milwaukee County as they relate to enterprises with which Subject is connected were examined and the following noted:
